All divers doing regular classes must be members of RDC. Clinic divers do not need to become members.

The RDC Board, at their monthly meetings, grants membership. Unless otherwise notified, all divers will be granted Membership of RDC when they commence diving and will be charged accordingly. Membership fees will be charged from 1 July to 30 June the following year. The current Membership fee is $81.50 per annum, pro-rated after 1 March each year. To compete in any Diving Victoria competitions, divers need to become Diving Victoria Members as well. Details are available of the Diving Victoria website.

If you are not already a member and sign up for regular classes, you will receive an Invoice for Membership fees.

Your annual membership fee is valid from the time of joining until the 30th June each year.

Membership of RDC can be revoked at any time if the board deems that the member is not adhering to the Rules and Policies of RDC. Written notification of revoke of membership will be given.
